A vibrant tropical beach scene under a clear blue sky. Several tall palm trees are scattered across the landscape. A large white banner with red text is strung across the middle of the frame. Below it, a smaller red banner with white text is visible. In the foreground, there are thatched-roof huts. People are seen relaxing on the sandy beach, some sitting and some standing. Red and white striped umbrellas and yellow lounge chairs are set up near the water's edge. The turquoise ocean stretches to the horizon, with a range of green hills visible in the distance.
